Description:

Some guy named Ethan Davis has been texting Cassie. He seems to know all about her--but she cant place him. Hes not in Bridgewater Highs yearbook either. Cassie thinks one of her friends is punking her. But she cant ignore the strange coincidences—like how Ethan looks just like the guy in her nightmares. Cassies search for Ethan leads her to a shocking discovery—and a struggle for her life. Will Cassie be able to break free from her mysterious stalker?

Below is a review of cassie receiving some kind of messages from a guy named Ethan Davis written by Stephanie Watson, Note that Stephanie begins with a dream for cassie where she is walking from school to home it was foggy, she was also thinking of what to where for a Halloween party in a instant the fog disappears and she notices she spots something in the distance something was walking towards her and closing in ,this thing walks towards her the object was actual a human a guy she notices in an instant the guy gets closer and now in front of her face classic immediately closes her eyes she notices the soft hands that were once touching her became hard and cold and now the voice of this guy and become closer to death once opening her eyes she shes this monstrous looking thing. by writing this its , showing how it is different from other books about opening the beginning of something more wonderful. Stephanie finds a strength in this book because its showing how humans can communicate with the dead and that is scary but at the same time cool, our paths can cross with anybody and we might not even know it like cassie she discovered the unfolded story of Ethan Davis the kind of details that cassie would have never known, for those dreams cassie had to find out more.However,everything went black and now cassie will be left to fight for her life . All in all, I find Stephanies book best reading foreveryone.
