Description:

Excerpt from An Authentic Narrative of the Causes Which Led to the Death of Major André, Adjutant-General of His Majesty's Forces in North America Upon the reduction of Fort Montgomery, the royal force proceeded up the Hudson, to the vicinity of Albany, carrying fire and devastation before them. On both sides of the river the shores were undefended by mountains, opening to an extensive campaign country, well inhabited by substantial farmers, of whom two thirds were unfriendly to the dismemberment of the empire by the measure of independence of Great Britain.
