Description:

The unique boundaries of the short story have attracted a majority of the prominent writers in the German language since the genre attained its modern form and became widely read around the turn of the 19th century. This collection, featuring stories by eight of the forms most successful practitioners, includes Arthur Schnitzler's Lieutenant Gustl, considered to be the first purely interior monologue in European literature; Heinrich von Kleist's Earthquake in Chile, a highly charged narrative in which nature and public opinion precipitate acts of incredible violence; as well as important works by Franz Kafka, Thomas Mann, Gerhart Hauptmann, Rainer Maria Rilke, E. T. A. Hoffmann, and Clemens Brentano. Required reading for students of world literature, this volume will be a welcome addition to the collection of any literary connoisseur.

This is a very enjoyable book. I only read a couple of the stories as I bought it to gift to someone and didn't want to mess up the binding. The Dover Thrift books are a great value, yes they're not as fancy, but I enjoy them. I read a lot while traveling and appreciate having these smaller, lightweight books to fit more than one in my suitcase. I know, I know, eBooks are best for travel and I do use Kindle, but I like the feeling of a physical book as well. I haven't given the book away yet and may need to purchase another for myself as well.
